FINANCIAL RECOVERY CONTRACT

This agreement, made this _____ day of _____, 20 _____,

1. The First Nation agrees to provide financial assistance to the Student in accordance with the Post Secondary Student Assistance Policy of the Mississaugas of the Credit First Nation.
2. The Student agrees that he/she:
 - a. Is or intends to become enrolled as a student at _____ college/university, in the _____ program.
 - b. Shall attend all classes and complete all requirements of the said program, and shall provide such confirmation of attendance and progress reports to the First Nation as the First Nation may require from time to time.
 - c. Shall comply with the terms of this agreement and with the Post Secondary Student Assistance Policy of the First Nation in effect from time to time.
 - d. Shall inform the Education Department in writing of his/her address, telephone number and e-mail address any change thereto during the term of this agreement.
 - e. Shall inform the Education Department in writing immediately in the event he/she fails to commence or continue as a student.
 - f. Shall in the event of any default of this agreement by the Student, including but not limited to withdrawal by the Student from the said program prior to successful completion thereof, reimburse to the First Nation all financial assistance received by the Student from the First Nation, and shall pay interest at the rate established by the First Nation from the date of default on all amounts outstanding.
3. This agreement shall continue in effect until the Student successfully completes the program or repays all financial assistance as the case may be.
4. Provide by September 13 (if completing summer courses), January 13 and May 13 each year, an official transcript each term. Failure to do so will result in a delay of living allowance being released.

In witness whereof the parties have signed as of the date first written above.
